The Oceanic Co.'s steamer Alameda, Captain Morse, arrived on Saturday merning, 6 days and 16 hours from San Francisco. She brings dates to the 15th instant. The following is a brief summary of the principal news items:-

Prince Henry of Prussia and the German Embassador were at the Paddington depot in a room directly above the cloakroom in which the dynamite was recently found and at the exact moment of the explosion at the Victoria depot.

The Sun's London cablegram says: The speech from the throne at the opening of the German Reichstag is held to indicate the conclusion of an arrangement, practically amounting to a formal treaty of altiance, between Russia, Germany and Austria. The Czar pledges himself not to attack Austrian possessions, to recognise the occupation of Bosnia and reject for a certain period any combination with France and Austria, meantime desisting from her enward march to Salonica, and guarantees, along with Germany, to prevent war.

The commercial situation in Havana is very critical. Low prices of sugar tightness of the money market and general distrust are accelerating a crisis that may involve all branches of business. At Sagua, Rodriguez & Co., sugar exporters, have failed, the liabilities exceeding $2,000,000. At Cardinas, Myares & Co., banking and commission merchants, also engaged in sugar exporting, have suspended, being heavily involved in the failure of Rodriguez. Mackellar & Luling are in difficulties of long standing. The sugar market is depressed by scarcity of sugar exporters, se many of whom have failed during the last few years. One or two other bankers in Havana are regarded with distrust.

General Graham telegraphs concerning the last battle in the Soudan that five officers and eighty-six men were killed, eight officers missing. The rebels numbered from ten to twelve thousand. Three officers and seven men of the Naval Brigade were killed at the guns. Over 2,000 rebels were killed. The rebels charged regardless of their great loss.

Bismarck walked to the Reichstag at the recent opening, for the first time in several years. Crowds of people filled the streets and followed the Prince, who was everywhere greeted with cheers. The Chancellor was highly gratified at his reception and repeatedly expressed his thanks.

John J. O'Brien, ex Assistant Secretary of the San Francisco Harbor Commission, has been found guilty and sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment, In passing sentence, Judge Toohy said : " The law provides a very light punishment for this offense. It is one of the anomalies of legislation that offences of this character are enly punishable by one of the lightest penalties connected with the criminal statutes. The heaviest sentence that can be given to you, is not at all commensurate with the enormity of the offense of which you have been found guilty. Therefore, so far as leniency is concerned, I cannot exercise it in this case. It is the judgment of the law and the sentence of the Court, now, that you be imprisoned in the State Prison of the State of California at San Quentin, for the period of ten years."

Minister Hunt is dead, The tiags of the Navy Department and Navy Yard were placed at half mast on the 4th inst. in respect to the memory of Minister Hunt, whose funeral took place at St. Petersburg.

Much anxiety is felt in England in regard to the situation at Khartoum. A Times Alexandria dispatch says: "It is proverbial that three courses are possible -to leave General Gordon to his fate, to dispatch English troops to Khartoum, or to import Indian troops. The policy of doing nothing has not hitherto achieved signal success.

Tonquin advices report that the French column advancing upon Baeninh from Haidzuong has had a successful engagement with the enemy. It is rumored that serious news has been received regarding the French advance on Bacninh. The Government's silence on the subject causes great irritation.

A report is current in Hongkong that General Millot has opened a cannonade of a hug.

upon Bacninh. At Canton there are all the signs of prolonged war. No hostility to foreigners is shown, however,
